

CANADIAN CLUBS MEET IN EAST

Lecture Scheme Of Major Ney, Winnipeg, Is Adopted

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 10.—Gathering oratory and earnest discussion were features of the meeting of the trustees of the Association of Canadian Clubs' convention here today, the second day of the meeting.

The association had adopted what it called "No Canada" to be sung at the club meeting, agreed to at Port William and Port Adolph as the result of a vote. The delegates to have a committee report upon the leadership scheme which was outlined, told the speakers to visit Canada. This was the first time that the most outstanding of Englishmen and women and their contemporaries had been invited to speak. It was decided not to attempt any alteration of the present constitution.

The meeting adjourned yesterday and will have much business to transact. It is reported that the delegates will submit, with regard to a polyglot manual of citizenship, the letter of the Canadian government secretary and bureau of information, the adoption of a club badge and with regard to the "Mileage Leaf" published in Hamilton.

MAINTAIN THE LEAGUE COVENANT

dismantle debate. M. Maisoula, French宰相, at Paris, making
it was considered an important declaration.

COURTS MUST BE SUPREME

The Japanese view, M. Maisoula said, was that the League must guarantee peace by arbitration.
It would be necessary for every country to accept the exclusive competence of the world court on all questions of international law in which honour were concerned. He feared there was no present guarantee of that.

Speaking before the commission,
Lord Balfour said that Germany
would be imperious unless Germany was a member. The League must have the right to make the plan for arbitration, securely.

Developments today showed a tendency to move towards the cooperation of the League and to strengthen its terms so as to bind disputes of a political nature.

Although remaining faithful to the League, Japan eventually burdened Japan eventually to meet the effects of a great earthquake and fire last year,
decided to withdraw from the League by the League of Nations from the permanent Japanese delegation to Geneva.

BACKING ANOTHER WESTERN IDEA.

Hon. Mr. Motherwell has given the Conservative newspapers another opportunity to invite him to resign from the Dominion Government. Some of them wanted him to quit the cabinet last week because he expressed the opinion that the time had come to resume the construction of the Hudson Bay railway. Now he declares that the Federal Government ought to lend a helping hand in finding means to prevent the rust which nearly every year takes more or less heavy toll from the western wheat growers. Whether the Opposition papers may think about it, western people generally will welcome the latter view as they did the former, and will hope that in both instances the Minister of Agriculture may be able to prevail upon his associates. Rust is a real enemy to the welfare of the western farmer, and Dominion money would be well spent in trying to find out how to get rid of it or a kind of wheat that would not be subject to it.

THE CHICAGO AWARD.

Judge Caverly has decided that life imprisonment is the sufficient and appropriate punishment to be imposed upon Leopold and Loeb for the self-admitted crime of murdering the Franks boy. It is not part of the duty of a Canadian paper to pass judgment on this decision of the Chicago court. But Canadians may be pardoned if they find in it confirmation of the tradition that the taking of human life is viewed less sternly by the judiciary of the Republic than by the judges in our courts. It is about as certain as any guess can be that had Leopold and Loeb faced a Canadian court they would have been sent to the gallows. If the people of the United States are satisfied with the measure of protection given them by the imposition of the lesser penalty that is their affair. If life imprisonment in Illinois means imprisonment for life friends of the term are construct as it is elsewhere they will be turned into twenty years or so hence to complete their sentence in the thrill-producing penitentiaries of murder.

But what becomes of Leopold and Loeb is of less importance than what will come of their escape from the noose. Every criminal and criminally-inclined individual in the United States will rejoice over their deliverance and will see in their case that he may kill without danger of being hanged. If this pair did not deserve the death penalty, for what crime would it be consistent to hang anybody? And if the taking of human life is so lightly regarded why think seriously of the many cases offered of a criminal's reprieve? The most consequent of the findings is not that the murder of the Franks boy is not to be avenged, but that the law will be brought into contempt among that element in society which is only kept in subjection by fear of the law. People in Chicago, and elsewhere in the Republic, will not be afraid to shoot with more confidence, nor sleep more soundly at night, because of the lenient treatment accorded to those who deliberately perpetrated one of the blackest crimes ever committed on this continent.

QUALITY MUST COUNT.

Speaking at Sherbrooke, Quebec, one of the world's best scientists warned Canadians that they must be careful as to who they admit as immigrants if they wish to preserve the purity of the native stock and the social and other standards they have built up. The advice is not new, but it can scarcely be repeated often enough. It is a good principle, the "meting-point" policy that would fill the country with whatever human elements can be attracted hither, in the hope of thereby achieving a temporary and material prosperity. That course has been popular since the war, but that assumed assumes an air of the ridiculous. The "meting-point" is a limit to the admittance that can be allowed without weakening the national traits and endangering the national ideals. Canadians are now more particular than they used to be to whom they invite to become their neighbors.

Discrimination is a dominant note in our immigration policy; in former years, and will continue to be. The best is none too good for Canada. Better immigration at all than open door policy that would make the Dominion a duplicate of the ethnological map of Europe or of America.

Peking and China as to what races shall be admitted and in what numbers involves a belief that the Canadian stock is worth preserving and that our ideals and institutions are the best. Race superiority is a matter of fact. The world could people from any race to dominate the globe, but a plausible declaration in which they cannot be supposed to agree. Fortunately we do not have to argue the point. All that is necessary is to lay down the law and hang up the "keep out" sign to those we do not want. Whether they happen to like us or not their place is outside the gates of the Canadian people. They have a right to say that they shall not be overruled by an influx of foreigners, and that the traditions they have created shall not be swamped by imported customs and habits of living and thought. If it is the privilege of a few to say what shall be done to the world, it is morally within the right of a people to say what alien races shall be allowed to blend with their national life.

Discrimination is the keynote to the immigration policy of the United States. It will have to be also the basis of the policies of the provinces which seek to attract all the more as the borders turned back from the gate of the Republic will seek entrance to the Dominion.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR FIRE DAMAGE.

In the summer of 1923 a fire started by a logging company on Vancouver Island got out of control and spread through a settlement of timber farmers. Fifty-two parties suffered the loss of their homes or other material damages as a result, while one life was lost and a number of people were burned or otherwise injured. Suits were entered against the logging company, but twice the courts gave the decision to the plaintiffs. The company has now settled on a basis of paying eighty per cent. of the claims, aggregating $102,000, together with costs of litigation amounting to $25,000.

The question is of wide interest as affecting the question of responsibility for damages resulting from fires. If a lumbering firm in British Columbia is responsible when a fire gets beyond control and wipes out a backwoods settlement, it is to be supposed that a lumbering company elsewhere in Canada is equally responsible under the same circumstances. If the lumberman is responsible when the settler is the injured party, does the rule work the other way, and can the former collect when the latter starts a fire in a brush pile and the wind carries the sparks into a timber limit? Is one settler accountable to another? What about campers, fishing parties and hunters, who sometimes leave a camp fire smoldering which the wind fans into a flame and develops into a conflagration destructive either to timber or to a settler's crops or buildings, or to his property? Does not the lumberman stand ready why the sole responsibility should rest against a lumber company and in favor of settlers and not against settlers in favor of a lumbering company. Nor why there should be one law where a fire which ravages homesteads is started by a lumberman and another when it is started by a member of the public?

Whatever follows in the way of litigation will be interesting, but it is to be hoped that it should be to arouse greater caution on the part of all parties who have occasion to traverse the woods or to use an outdoor fire. If the sportsman or the holiday-maker is personally liable for the damage done by a half-burned match thrown away during dry grass or leaves, and the plowmen for losses caused to others if his clearing fires get out of hand, forest fires will get to be less common.

THE BUGS GO TO WAR.

Some newspapermen have seen so much

in this summer the people

have had to fight them with arsenic

by the tonnage.

In South Africa the government has spent $11,000,000 to fight

a plague of locusts, the worst on record.

A swarm of locusts

extending in an unbroken mass

for 1,000 miles have devoured every bit of green vegeta-

tation in its wake.

The peculiar weather of the last few weeks has been responsible for the appearance of all kinds of Army worms which have been destroying crops in the Mississippi valley.

Further progress by the pest will be checked by arsenic.

Army worms

are becoming a vanishing

youngster to seek insect enemy

now that they haven't any place to hide in.

Salmon Trout First in Classic St. Leger by Two Lengths

Aga Khan
Colt Wins

Bay Son of the Tetrarch
Flashes Home Victorious
—Odds 6 to 1 Against

POLYPHONTES RUNS
THIRD AT FINISH

Favorite Takes Command
At Distance Post, But Winner Outs Him

LONDON, Sept. 10.—(Canadian Press)—The Aga Khan, a 10-year-old, this afternoon scored his second victory in the Canadian St. Leger, defeating the year-olds when his bay colt Salmon Trout, by The Tetrarch, won the furlongs and 12½ yards, at Doncaster, England, yesterday. The colt, ridden by A. B. Walker, finished second, with the favorite, Sol Jofa's Polynices, third. The Aga Khan, who had won Trout went to the post at odds of 6 to 1 against Polypontes, the favorite, at odds of 20 to 1 against him.

The horse was sent to a fine start. Arcadia went out in front quickly, but was followed by Eglise Stone, Santander, West Gold, Irenian, Pionneer, and John Bell. The Salmon Trout just behind Samsonine, but was overtaken by the colts. In this order for the first half mile when Eglise Stone, forced the pace, and the clear of John Bell, the Aga Khan, Polypontes, and Salmon Trout were the only ones left. At the half way mark Polypontes was the only one left, but he was not far enough until on entering the straight Polypontes shot out in front. The Aga Khan followed, pursued by Salmon Trout, Samsonine, and Polynices. A quarter of a mile from home Salmon closed with the Aga Khan, but the latter held the distance post but was promptly overtaken by the colt, who had come with "Bell Gold" and was comfortably by two lengths ahead of the others. Samsonine and Polypontes for second and third respectively, were outsider in the betting, finished fourth. Samsonine was beaten 10 lengths. Polypontes brought up the rear.

Time for the race was 3 minutes, 12 1/2 seconds.

The St. Leger is the oldest of the races for three-year-olds that are considered the classic of the year. The race was established in 1776. To the makers of the original purse, the value of $10,000, the winner being approximately $10,000.

"On the Road to Calcutta."
Dramatic Sketch Headlining Bill

With the summer season a thing of the past and autumn looming up in the calendar, the theatre-going public is beginning to present a little more seriously, and the jazz bands and the dancing girls are finding that the hot weather may give way to dramatics and the like. And so it is that with the sole idea of catering in his public life, Mr. Pantages has decided to bring a little atmosphere for the vanishing hill opening the new season at the Capitol Theatre. Starting right, a dramatic sketch, "On the Road to Calcutta," will open in the matinee to the Edmonton citizens, nation's one of the most popular cities in the country. On stage today, Maurice Barrett, Miss Dorothy Dalton, Jack Holt, Monte Steward and cast of Broadway favorites, and in this play, which features a number of scenes, the entire gamut of emotions. It is a play that will bring back with its lights scenes which no one individualized up to the auditorium.

Alexander and Fields are still playing their comedy sketches, but it is a safe assertion to say that the "Great Idea" and "The Great Wolf" are always welcome in this man's town. In their trumpet tones they have a number of comedy scenes very funny parades. The stars of the show are, however, Monte Blue and Eddie Howard. Wearing the drapes of the stage, the stars of the evening ring in mid-air. The climax of their offering is the "Harvest week," first introduced by Mr. Harcourt of this combination, and darling of the audience.

Dorothy Lewis, mezzo-soprano, is a charming young lady who is not a prima donna, but she has a good voice and a prominent place on the hill of popular and jazz selections. Another musical act that comes well into the picture is the Monte Steward, America's premier xylophonist, who will be heard in the second chapter of "The Revelatory Girl," which got away to the critics.

IN GLORIA SWANSON'S VEHICLE, "MY AMERICAN WIFE"

Crack! Crack! Two revolver shots ring out and a figure falls to the floor. When he is examined it is found that the bullet has torn through his heart and has apparently come from ambush instead of the revolver of the man facing him.

But he didn't know that the bullet had been fired from a gun muffled with a Maxim silencer and that the assassin had been hired by his father. He had been informed of the death of his most dangerous enemy.

The final exposure of the assassin and the murderer is made in the new Sam Wood production, "My American Wife," in which Gloria Swanson is the star and which will be on view to the audience at the Empire Theatre during the week.

Youngsters regularly during the week will be entertained by the new serials of the South American Bewitch.

Plays in preparation include such as "Little Old New York," "The Bird of Fortune," "Just Married," "Reverie," "The Man Who Came to Town," "Editha," "The Man Who Came to Town," and "The Man Who Came to Town."
